The Friends of Hemispheric Institute on the Americas

The success of the Hemispheric Institute on the Americas (HIA) depends on the generous support of people who value education and research. Our efforts at understanding the American hemisphere from Canada to Patagonia are enhanced by the UC Davis alumni and community members who make gifts in support of the program. Our Friends help the program by funding undergraduate or graduate research awards, public lectures and readings, a Latin American film series, workshops and conferences--all the essentials that help create a more robust and dynamic environment for our faculty, students, and friends from the community.
